Costa del Sol

Enjoying its own microclimate, the Costa del Sol boasts over 320 days of sunshine a year. With its modern infrastructure and international airport, most European cities are within easy access. From the various culinary delights, cultural activities, shopping, water-sports, golf or simply relaxing in the sun, the Costa del Sol has it all and much more.

Location

Marques de Atalaya is perfectly positioned on an elevated site bordering the course Atalaya Golf and Country Club and overlooking Gibraltar and the Estepona coastline to the west, the Marbella coastline to east, perfect sea views to the south and tranquil mountain views to the north.

It is only 5km away from the gastronomical village of Benahavis and only 2km away from San Pedro de Alcántara.

The Project

Marques de Atalaya consists of 170 apartments and penthouses, all with secure car parking and storage. The emphasis is on space and quality, all clearly reflected in its high specification and design. The numerous landscaped gardens, squares and water features, give an Andalusien village style appeal to the projects is further enhanced by a heated indoor swimming pool, jacuzzi and sauna/Turkish bath area. There will also be a bar, tennis court, green bowl lawn and a covered children`s play area.
